WHAT IS IT?

Practical Spiritual Astrology is grounded in the understanding that our aim as consciously evolving humans is not only to remember and reclaim our essential divine nature, but also to manifest that spiritual essence more dynamically and more abundantly in the material world. The sacred knowledge of the heavenly intelligences and their cosmic cycles can guide us infallibly into spontaneous right action and joyful, fulfilled expression of our true selves.

Practical Spiritual Astrology thus brings us daily opportunities for being completely spiritually centered in a consistently resourceful manner that brings out the best qualities in our circumstances, that is completely congruent with our true creative nature, and that is genuinely helpful to others in a multitude of pragmatic, life-affirming ways.

THE FOCUS FOR APRIL

What a busy month! The April Full Moon ushering in Passover and bringing us to Holy Week in the Christian calendar also offers us an opportunity to reclaim the true value of ritual in our lives. In the play and pageant of ritualized activities, just as in the innocent imaginative play of children, we can envision the perfection of our existence, and by doing so move a little closer to the Divine Ideal we are here to embody. While our participation in ritual may at times seem like a burden or at least an inconvenience, it opens up our awareness to the reality of the ever-abundant Source that can bounteously supply our needs in any circumstance.

Even so, there will inevitably be times when contacts become difficult, when communications get tangled, and when relationships get tense. Whenever that happens, our sacred task is not only to reclaim our connection with the eternal presence of the Divine Absolute, but also to remember that Divinity perpetually expresses itself in infinite variety. The more we experience radical change in our lives, the more we can be reassured that we are being cared for in a loving Universe.

At the time of the April 17 New Moon we have a chance to reflect calmly and soberly on all the ways we can improve ourselves as creative expressions of Infinite Intelligence. It is only when we embrace complete personal responsibility for all our circumstances that we can experience true freedom in the midst of the social conventions and constraints that surround us.

When we are absorbed in our most romantic notions of ultimate spiritual refinement, we may imagine that all interpersonal barriers spontaneously disappear, allowing us to merge completely with the illumined minds and higher motivations and intentions of others. Even so, as long as we continue to function on the material plane we must actively use our most intelligent powers of discernment to energize ourselves for more engaging and effective ways of uniting with our companions on the spiritual journey.

Nature always provides resources so abundant that our needs and desires can be met without hesitation, but there are nevertheless times when it is helpful for us to remind ourselves of that fact, especially when we are in the presence of discord, contention, or confrontation. It's not that any special action is required on our part; it is simply that we can experience ever-greater and more enriching levels of fulfillment when we increase the amount of gratitude we are willing to experience and express.

people we despise, we don't believe in it at all."

--Noam Chomsky
