WHAT IS IT?

Practical Spiritual Astrology is grounded in the understanding that our aim as consciously evolving humans is not only to remember and reclaim our essential divine nature, but also to manifest that spiritual essence more dynamically and more abundantly in the material world. The sacred knowledge of the heavenly intelligences and their cosmic cycles can guide us infallibly into spontaneous right action and joyful, fulfilled expression of our true selves.

Practical Spiritual Astrology thus brings us daily opportunities for being completely spiritually centered in a consistently resourceful manner that brings out the best qualities in our circumstances, that is completely congruent with our true creative nature, and that is genuinely helpful to others in a multitude of pragmatic, life-affirming ways.

“What we are looking for is what is looking.”

- St. Francis of Assisi

THE FOCUS FOR MARCH

What an amazing month March will be! The old saying is that March “comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb.” That’s likely to be true with extreme weather conditions accompanying the New Moon conjunct Uranus as February ends and March gets underway. But the stormy weather isn’t likely to be limited to what’s happening outside our window; there is plenty of potential for emotional storms as well. March brings us a Lunar Eclipse, a Solar Eclipse, planetary stations by Jupiter, Pluto, and three of the transneptunian hypotheticals, and three weeks of Mercury retrograde as well! As always, our task is to remain true to our spiritual center, participating fully in the play and display of emotions so that we can learn their lessons without becoming bound to outcomes or expectations.

With Mercury making a station and going retrograde near the start of the month, communications challenges may develop, but if we simply focus on the true meaning of our actions instead of worrying about the nuances of our words, we will open up wonderful new opportunities for divine exploration. At times it’s good to pause, take a breath, and remember that no matter how insignificant we may feel, and no matter how embroiled we get in our daily complications, we always impact the lives of others and the consciousness of our planet itself. In humble gratitude that our personal power often far exceeds our understanding, we can be confident that we will spontaneously choose right actions in the face of the estrangement and active conflict that are likely to confront us in the days ahead.

Most of the time our individual spiritual path is likely to be an internal, deeply private endeavor, but by the time we reach the middle of the month, with the Lunar Eclipse, the Jupiter/Neptune square, and the stations by the transneptunians, our greatest opportunities for spiritual growth are far more likely to come through engagement with others in our communities and throughout the world at large. Our role is not to convince or to proselytize, but rather to embody our spiritual ideals through our personal actions, moving forward with passion, intensity, and conviction.

As the Sun moves into Aries and we reach the first day of Spring, It will be time to act on the basis of what we know to be true, to connect ourselves body and soul to the infinite source of Ancient Wisdom that is our heritage. As we do so, we can become greater channels of divine intelligence, being bold enough to embrace and express profound affirmations, even if we feel that we do not understand them fully. After all, our true nature is one of indomitable grace, and when we trust the fundamental goodness and order of the universe, we invariably find ourselves divinely protected.

Our heads may be in the clouds at month's end, and that may not be a bad thing, especially if we are prepared to set up permanent residence in those transcendent realms. Just to make sure we don't miss the point, the Solar Eclipse on March 29 reminds us to look past humdrum expectations and become true visionaries. By focusing our attention on the higher potential that is always dormant in our experiences, we can concentrate divine energy into a magically potent force for practical transformation.

Spiritual Living in the Material World

We face many challenges when we try to bring our spiritual awareness into the realm of mundane reality, but there are few challenges greater than the ones that revolve around money.

Financial concerns have enormous power which can be used wisely to transform our lives and to open up new avenues of loving and creative service. Money typically creates emotional stress, and with it some wonderful opportunities for growth, spiritual evolution, and personal contribution.
