WHAT IS IT?

Practical Spiritual Astrology is grounded in the understanding that our aim as consciously evolving humans is not only to remember and reclaim our essential divine nature, but also to manifest that spiritual essence more dynamically and more abundantly in the material world. The sacred knowledge of the heavenly intelligences and their cosmic cycles can guide us infallibly into spontaneous right action and joyful, fulfilled expression of our true selves.

Practical Spiritual Astrology thus brings us daily opportunities for being completely spiritually centered in a consistently resourceful manner that brings out the best qualities in our circumstances, that is completely congruent with our true creative nature, and that is genuinely helpful to others in a multitude of pragmatic, life-affirming ways.

“What we are looking for is what is looking.”

- St. Francis of Assisi

THE FOCUS FOR FEBRUARY

February may be a very short month, but this year it brings unusual potential for tension, stress, and ego-driven distractions from the spiritual path. Throughout the month, we are called upon to remain true to our divine purpose in the midst of confusing and often disturbing circumstances.

With the February 2 Full Moon, we have a fresh chance to transform the way we see the world around us. We just have to accept new ways of structuring our daily existence, aligning our lives with the loving, spiritual priorities that not only more fully express who we really are, but also open up unbounded possibilities for richer, more rewarding experiences that create a genuine, completely inspiring metamorphosis.

As we move into the first full week of the month, explosive energies and surprising developments may keep us on our toes more fully than we might typically expect. In this environment, when we follow our egos, seeking instant gratification in the most expedient way possible, we are likely to find society supporting our behavior. If we are to counterbalance the destructive side-effects of such indulgences, we must personally reclaim our divine connection. Unless we remain firmly focused on our highest ideals, we may unwittingly foster separation, conflict, and violence. Needless to say, this is a time in which we will need to stay on our toes!

On St. Valentine's Day Mercury begins its first retrograde cycle of the year. This is a time when communications and travel can get quite muddled, but it can also be a positive time for reflection and renewal. We have a sacred opportunity now to remake ourselves anew, to refresh our divine intensions in a positive and creative way. If we are willing to alter the patterns and habits of our everyday activities, we will soon discover our ability to open up spontaneously to the transformational powers that guide us on our evolutionary path.

Following the February 17 New Moon, if we let the revitalizing power of love work its amazing magic in our lives, we can begin to experience more and more amazing dimensions of abundance. In short, we can connect wholeheartedly with true prosperity in our material affairs, in our creative ideas, in our relationships, and in our underlying ability to experience complete ecstasy in all our circumstances and activities.

Then, as February draws to a close, we are confronted with a fundamental choice: shall we hold on to our old limited paradigms and constrained expectations, or shall we embrace the unbounded possibilities that lie ahead? As always, the answer lies within our hearts, but we must summon our will and focus our intentions if we are going to manifest fresh possibilities in the months ahead.
